A. Filing Fees.

1. In General.

Unless otherwise provided by law, rule, or judicial determination, fees must be paid to the Clerk before a civil action or proceeding can be filed in this Court. This fee is called the “filing fee” and is the initial cost deposit paid to the Clerk.

Unless otherwise provided by law or rule, filing fees are also assessed when:

- a. filing a counterclaim;
- b. filing a cross-claim;
- c. reopening a case;
- d. filing a motion after a judgment or decree;
- e. requesting a hearing after an administrative hearing, including after a child support enforcement administration (“CSEA”) hearing;
- f. transferring a case from another court;
- g. requesting service on multiple parties;

- h. the deposit amount is insufficient to cover future costs; or
- i. determined necessary or desirable by the Court.

Failure to pay required fees may result in rejection of the attempted filing or in dismissal of the case.

2. Determining the filing fee. The Court periodically adopts new fee schedules. The fee schedule is available at the Geauga County Clerk of Court's office or on the Geauga County Clerk of Court's website.
3. Unpaid Fees and Costs. The Clerk may refuse to accept a filing if the filing party owes costs or fees from another case or matter.
4. Poverty Affidavits. A poverty affidavit filed in lieu of cash deposit must state reasons for the inability to prepay costs and is subject to court review at any stage of the proceedings. A party filing a poverty affidavit may later be ordered to pay fees or costs.
5. The State of Ohio and Political Subdivisions. The State of Ohio and its political subdivisions, together with governmental agencies or officers of either, are exempt from prepayment of filing fees.

B. Application of Filing Fees. Filing fees are applied to costs in the case. Another party may be ordered by the Court to reimburse filing fees and costs.

C. General Special Projects Fee:

1. Pursuant to R.C. § 2303.201(E)(1), the Court has determined that, for the efficient operation of the Court, additional funds are necessary to acquire and pay for special projects of the Court.
2. As authorized under R.C. § 2303.201(E)(1), the Clerk of Courts shall charge, in addition to all other costs, a fee of $ 25.00 on the filing of each criminal cause, civil action or proceeding, or judgment by confession.
3. All fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be used for special projects consistent with R.C. § 2303.201(E)(1).
4. All fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be paid to the County Treasurer, who shall place the funds from the fee in a separate general special projects fund to be disbursed upon an order of the Court.

RULE 6. E-FILING PROCEDURES.

- A. Any signature on electronically transmitted documents shall be considered that of the attorney or party it purports to be for all purposes. If it is established that the documents were transmitted without authority, the court shall order the filing stricken.

- C. When a document is submitted, the e-filing system will issue a confirmation of receipt, showing the submission is pending and the date and time of submission.
- D. The clerk reviews all electronically filed documents for compliance with court rules, policies, procedures, and practices. After review, the document becomes accepted, pending, or rejected.
- E. Only accepted documents are filed, docketed, and time stamped.

1. Accepted Documents.

If the document is accepted for filing, a docket entry reflecting the time of submission as the time of filing is generated. A notice of acceptance is electronically sent to the e-filer. The notice of acceptance specifies the date and time the document was received by the clerk and filed in the court's records.

If the document is an initial complaint or other document requiring service by the clerk, the clerk will follow service instructions provided by the e-filer. If service by the clerk is not required, the electronic filing system will notify registered e-filers of the filing.

2. Pending Documents.

If a document is not accepted, the electronic filing system will notify the e-filer of the document's status as pending or rejected.

If a document is pending, the e-filer may correct all deficiencies and re-submit the document within two business days of the electronic notice of pending status. If a pending document is timely re-submitted and accepted for e-filing, the docket entry will show the time of submission as the time of the original attempt to file.

3. Rejected Documents.

Rejected Documents are not docketed and do not become part of the official court record.

- F. Any document filed electronically that requires a filing fee may be rejected by the clerk unless the filer has complied with the mechanism established by the court for the payment of filing fees.

All parties or counsel so served shall have eight (8) days from the date of mailing in which to approve or reject the judgment entry. In the event of rejection, the objecting party or counsel shall file with the Court, at the time of said rejection, a written statement of the objections to the judgment entry.

Failure of the parties or counsel so served, to approve or reject any submitted judgment entry as provided above will constitute a waiver of all objections. Any party or counsel who does submit objections in a timely manner shall also submit a draft of the judgment entry or order which he/she proposes as a substitute.

No later than three (3) days after the expiration of the eight-day period for objections, the Judge or Magistrate will sign an appropriate judgment entry or order.

Such order shall be monthly and begin the first day of the month following the hearing, unless otherwise specified. All judgment entries providing for payment of child support or spousal support shall also include the following information as to both Obligor and Obligee: current residence and mailing addresses, birthdates, employers and their addresses, pay rates and pay periods, provided, however, direct payment of spousal support may be ordered consistent with the provisions of R.C. § 3121.441.

4. To continue the case for further Pre-Trial procedure.
- G. The parties or counsel shall be required upon request before, at, or after any Pre-Trial conference to provide opposing counsel with a list of names, identities and whereabouts of those witnesses counsel expects to call at the trial. The refusal or willful failure of any counsel to disclose a witness may render evidence by that witness inadmissible at the trial.
- H. All Pre-Trials in criminal cases must be had with the prosecutor's office only and the court will not participate in any plea negotiation discussions. All Pre-Trials must be completed no later than two (2) weeks prior to the date set for the trial, unless otherwise ordered by court. 4. Summer School. Summer school necessary for the child to pass to the next grade must be attended. Summer vacation parenting time may be scheduled during a mandatory summer school period, but the parent exercising parenting time must ensure that the child attends all classes.

The parent who has the child during the time of the scheduled activity is responsible for transportation, attendance, and other arrangements. Neither parent shall schedule activities that interfere with the other parent's time without that parent's consent. The parent arranging the child's participation in the activity should provide all relevant information, including schedules, contact information, etc., to the other parent as soon as possible. Both parents are encouraged to attend all of the child's activities.
14. School work. Parents shall provide time for children to study and complete homework assignments, even if the completion of work interferes with the parent's plans for the children. Each parent is responsible for providing the other parent all school assignments and books that are necessary for the children to complete their assignments when in the possession of the other parent.

The date of each jury draw and the court shall be established by order of the Court of Common Pleas only. The sequence in which each venire is drawn shall be at random. RULE 24. ARBITRATION.

In order to facilitate and expedite the administration of justice in Geauga County, Ohio, the following procedures, preliminary to the listing on the active list or trial list of the type of cases hereinafter described, shall be in effect from and after July 1, 2001.

PART I.

A. Cases for Submission. Every case in which a pre-trial has been conducted and the amount actually in controversy (exclusive of interest and costs) is Forty-Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00) per claimant or less, except those involving title to real estate, actions in equity, domestic relations or appeal, may be submitted to, heard and decided by a Board of Arbitration, consisting of three (3) members of the Bar of Geauga County, Ohio, to be selected as hereinafter provided in Part II. A case shall be placed upon the Arbitration List when so ordered at pre-trial or upon written request by counsel for any party after a pre-trial, by a Judge upon the determination that the amount actually in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, is Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00) per claimant or less.

The Court may order a case to be scheduled for trial to the court or jury, without referral to arbitration.

B. Cases Submitted by Stipulation. The parties in any action which is at issue may stipulate in writing, before or after pre-trial, that it may be submitted for arbitration in accordance with this Rule, without monetary limit. Upon the filing of such stipulation, the action may be ordered upon the Arbitration List.

C. Cases Submitted by Motion. Any party to an action which is at issue and has been pending at least six (6) months may file a motion that the case be submitted for Arbitration in accordance with this Rule. The assigned Judge may, in accordance with Local Rule 7 and without the necessity of a hearing, grant such motion and order the case placed upon the Arbitration List.

PART II.

A. Selection of Arbitrators. In all cases subject to arbitration, the members of the Board of Arbitration shall be appointed by the Court from the list of members of the Bar of Geauga County who are qualified and have volunteered to act.

B. Manner of Appointment. The Court shall appoint a panel of three arbitrators, the chair of which shall be a Notary Public. Upon written agreement of the parties, one arbitrator may be assigned to hear their case. The parties may agree upon the arbitrator, and/or the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Court. The arbitrator shall be entitled to receive compensation equal to the total compensation paid to the Board of Arbitrators of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) pursuant to the schedule in Part V.

C. Composition of Board; Disqualification. Not more than one (1) member of a law partnership or an association of attorneys shall be appointed to the same Board, nor shall an attorney be appointed to the Board who is related by blood or marriage to any party or attorney of record in the case, or who is a law partner or an associate of, or shares expenses with, any attorney of record in the case.

D. Assignment of Cases. The Court shall, if possible, assign two (2) or more cases to each Board at the time of appointment. Said cases shall be taken in order from the Arbitration List.

E. Disclosure. No disclosure of any offers of settlement shall be made to the arbitrators prior to the filing of the report and award referred to in Part IV.

PART III.

A. Hearings: When and Where Held; Notice; Referral Entry; Deposit. Hearings shall be held at a place provided by the Chair of the Board of Arbitration. Unless counsel for all parties and the entire Board agree, the location shall be Chardon, Ohio. Should the Chair be unable to provide a place for the hearing, the chair shall request another member of the Board to make such provision. Hearings shall not be held in the courthouse without the prior approval of the assigning Judge. The Chair shall schedule a hearing not less than fifteen (15) days nor more than ninety (90) days after the appointment of the Board of Arbitration and shall notify the arbitrators and the parties or their counsel in writing, at least ten (10) days before the hearing, of the time and place of the hearing. The ninety (90) day period may be extended by the Court. No hearings shall be scheduled for Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays or evenings, except upon agreement by counsel for all parties and the arbitrators. In the event of scheduling problems, and upon the Chair's request, the Court may set the arbitration for hearing by court order. Since sufficient time is available to the parties prior to the hearing date to settle or compromise their disputes, the hearing shall proceed forthwith at the scheduled time. Neither counsel nor the parties shall communicate with the arbitrators concerning the merits of the controversy prior to the commencement of the hearing.

The Entry referring a case to Arbitration shall include the following:

1. Case referred to Arbitration. Arbitration hearing shall be held and concluded within ninety (90) days from the date of referral UNLESS THE COURT APPROVES A REQUEST FOR CONTINUANCE BEYOND SUCH NINETY (90) DAY PERIOD.
2. Arbitration hearings scheduled prior to Court trials should be given priority.
3. If continuance of a hearing is agreed to by the Chair of the Arbitration Board upon request of an attorney or a party, the party requesting the continuance shall have the responsibility of contacting all parties and Arbitration Board members to obtain a date and time, agreeable to all involved, for the rescheduled hearing and notifying all parties and Board members in writing of the rescheduled date, time and place of the hearing. Continuances should be granted by the Chair only in situations of extreme hardship. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit an Arbitration Chair to continue an arbitration beyond ninety (90) days from the date of referral.

B. Oath of Arbitrators. When the whole number of the Arbitrators shall be assembled, they shall be sworn or affirmed to well and truly try all matters properly at issue submitted to them, which oath or affirmation may be administered to them by any person having authority to administer oaths, including any one of their number.

C. Default of a Party. The arbitration may proceed in the absence of any party, who, after due notice, fails to appear or obtain a continuance. An award shall not be made solely on the default of a party; the Board of Arbitration shall require the other party to submit such evidence as it may require to make an award.

D. Conduct of Hearing; General Powers. The three (3) members of the Board, unless the parties agree upon a lesser number, shall decide the relevancy and materiality of the evidence offered. Strict adherence to legal rules of evidence shall not be necessary. All evidence shall be taken in the presence of the arbitrators and parties except when a party is absent, in default, or has waived the right to be present. The Board may receive the evidence of witnesses by affidavit or written report and shall give it such weight as they deem it is entitled after consideration of any objections made to its admission. Each party is strongly urged to limit presentation of evidence to thirty (30) minutes. If special and unusual circumstances require additional time, the Chair and the other parties must be notified in advance.

E. Specific Powers. The Board of Arbitration shall have the general powers of a Court including, but not limited to, the following powers:

1. Subpoenas. To cause the issuance of subpoenas to witnesses to appear before the Board and to request the issuance of an attachment according to civil and local court rules for failure to comply therewith. Counsel shall, whenever possible, produce a party or witness at the hearing without the necessity of a subpoena.
2. Production of documents. To compel the production of all books, papers and documents which they shall deem material to the case.
3. Administering Oaths; Admissibility of Evidence. To administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses, to determine the admissibility of evidence, to permit testimony to be offered by depositions, affidavits, reports or otherwise and to decide the law and the facts of the case submitted to them.

F. Proof of Damages. In actions involving personal injury, damage to property or both, the following bills or estimates may be offered and received in evidence to prove the value and reasonableness of the charges for services, labor and material, or items contained therein and, where applicable, the necessity for furnishing the same, on condition that copies of the bills to be offered in evidence are provided to the adverse party at least seven (7) days prior to the arbitration hearing. Adverse parties are not bound by such evidence and may present evidence to the contrary regarding such bills or estimates.

1. Health Care Bills. Hospital bills on the official letterhead or billhead of the hospital when dated and itemized; bills of doctors and dentists, when dated and containing a statement showing the date of each visit and the charge therefor; bills of registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, or physical therapists and other healthcare professionals, when dated and containing an itemized statement of the days and hours of service and the charges therefor; bills for medicines, eye glasses, prosthetic devices, medical belts, or similar items.
2. Property Repair Bills or Estimates. Property repair bills or estimates when identified and itemized setting forth the charges for labor and material used in the repair of the property.

G. Exchange of Documentary Evidence. Copies of all documents and/or evidence which a party intends to introduce at the arbitration, including, but not limited to, medical and other expert reports, shall be provided to the other party seven (7) or more days prior to the scheduled arbitration date. For good cause shown, the Board may permit admission of documents provided to the other party less than seven (7) days before the hearing.

H. Supervisory Powers of Court. The assigned Judge shall have full supervisory powers with regard to any questions that arise during arbitration proceedings and in the application of these rules.

I. Witness Fees. Witness fees in any case referred to arbitration shall be the same amount as fees for witnesses in trials in the Common Pleas Court of Geauga County, Ohio. Witness fees may be ordered taxed as costs in the case. The costs in any case shall be paid by the same party or parties to whom taxed as if the case had been tried in the Common Pleas Court of Geauga County, Ohio.

J. Transcript of Testimony. The Arbitrators shall not be required to make a transcript of the proceedings before them. Any party desiring a transcript shall provide a court reporter, cause a record to be made and pay the cost thereof, which shall not be considered costs in the case. Any party desiring a copy of any transcript shall be provided with it by the court reporter upon payment thereof.

PART IV.

A. Report and Award. Within seven (7) days after the hearing, the Chair of the Board of Arbitration shall file the original report and award with the Clerk of Courts and on the same day shall mail or otherwise provide copies thereof to all parties or their counsel. An award for each party may not exceed Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00) per claimant, exclusive of interest and costs, except an award greater than Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00) per claimant may be made when the parties have consented to arbitration. The report and award shall be signed by all the members of the Board. In the event the three members do not agree on the finding and award, the dissenting member shall write the word "Dissents" before his or her signature. A minority report shall not be required unless the arbitrator elects to submit the same due to unusual circumstances. The Clerk of Courts shall docket the original report.

B. Legal Effect of Report and Award; Entry of Judgment. The report and award, unless appealed from as herein provided, shall be final and shall have the attributes and legal effect of a verdict. If no appeal is taken within the time and in the manner specified therefor, the prevailing party shall provide to the Court a judgment in accordance therewith. After entry of such judgment, execution process may be issued as in the case of other judgments.

PART V.

A. Member's Compensation. Each member of a Board of Arbitration shall receive a fee of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00), and the Chair shall receive Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), as compensation for services in each case. When more than one (1) case arising out of the same transaction is heard at the same hearing or hearings, it shall be considered as one (1) case insofar as compensation of the arbitrators is concerned. The members of a Board shall not be entitled to receive their fees until after filing the report and award with the Court. Fees paid to arbitrators shall not be taxed as costs nor follow the award as other costs.

B. Deposit for Arbitrators' fees. One-half (½) of the Board of Arbitrator's fees in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) shall be paid by plaintiff(s), and one-half (½) of the Board of Arbitrator's fees in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) shall be paid by defendant(s). The arbitrators' fees shall be deposited with the Chair or sole arbitrator at least fourteen (14) days prior to the scheduled arbitration.

IF A PARTY FAILS TO TIMELY DEPOSIT ARBITRATION FEES THE CHAIR, AFTER NOTICE, MAY CANCEL THE ARBITRATION. UPON CANCELLATION OF THE ARBITRATION THE CHAIR SHALL NOTIFY THE COURT. FAILURE TO DEPOSIT ARBITRATION FEES MAY RESULT IN THE IMPOSITION OF AN APPROPRIATE SANCTION INCLUDING DEFAULT JUDGMENT, DISMISSAL OF CLAIMS, AND THE AWARDING OF LEGAL FEES AND EXPENSES TO ADVERSELY AFFECTED PARTIES.

C. Dismissal of Case. In the event that a case is dismissed more than two (2) days prior to the scheduled hearing, the Board members shall not be entitled to the aforesaid fee. In the event that a case is settled or dismissed within two (2) days of the hearing, the Board members shall be entitled to receive said fee. Upon receiving notice that a case has been settled or dismissed more than two (2) days before the date set for hearing, the Court may assign another case to the same Board.

PART VI.

A. Right of Appeal. Any party may appeal the award of the Board of Arbitration to the Common Pleas Court of Geauga County. Appeal by any party shall require a trial de novo of the entire case on all issues and as to all parties. Separate appeals by each are not necessary. The right of appeal shall be completed subject to the following conditions, compliance with which shall be within thirty (30) days after the entry of the award of the Board on the docket of the Clerk of Courts.

- 2. Repayment of Arbitrators' Fees. The appellant shall pay to the Clerk of Courts the appellee's portion of the arbitrators' fees in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) contemporaneously with filing the appeal. The sum shall be paid to appellee or appellee's counsel, shall not be taxed as costs in the case and shall not be recoverable by the appellant in any proceeding. Failure to pay arbitrators' fees may result in dismissal of the appeal.
- 3. Poverty Affidavit and Notice. A party desiring to appeal an award may apply by a written motion and affidavit to the Court alleging by reason of poverty the inability to make the payments required for an appeal. If after due notice to the opposite parties the Court is satisfied of the truth of the statements in such affidavit, the Court may order that the appeal of such party be allowed although the said amounts are not paid by the appellant.

4. Withdrawal of Appeal. An appeal of an award of the Board of Arbitration filed hereunder may be withdrawn only upon agreement of all parties to the action.

5. Return to Active List. The case shall thereupon be returned to the assigned Judge for trial de novo.

B. Prevailing Party. In order to recover costs upon trial de novo, the appellant must obtain a more favorable result than awarded by the Board of Arbitration.

C. Testimony of Arbitrators on Appeal. In the event of an appeal from the award or decision of the Board of Arbitration, the arbitrators shall not be called to testify at any hearing de novo as to the proceedings which occurred before them in their official capacity as arbitrators.

D. Exceptions and Reasons Therefore. Any party may file exceptions with the Clerk of Courts from the decision of the Board of Arbitration within thirty (30) days from the filing of the report and award for the following reasons and for no other:

1. that the arbitrators misbehaved in the conduct of the case, or
2. that the action of the Board was procured by corruption or other improper means.

Copies of said exceptions shall be served upon each arbitrator within forty-eight (48) hours after filing, which shall be forthwith set for hearing before the assigned Judge, and which shall toll the thirty (30) day appeal period until decided by the Court. If such exceptions shall be sustained, the report of the Board shall be vacated by the Court, and the case assigned for trial or reassigned for arbitration.

K. After Hours Security. The Geauga County Sheriff shall, upon request, design and provide specific security measures for judges and court personnel in emergency and other circumstances which present security risks at times other than normal working hours or places other than the court facility. Such measures shall consider those matters enunciated in the commentary to Ohio Supreme Court Security Standard 10.

4. The Geauga County Sheriff shall devise a standard incident reporting form for security officer use.
5. A "security incident" is any disruption within the court facility which requires or results in processing by a security officer or other law enforcement officer.

RULE 26. EXPERT WITNESSES.

- A. Since Ohio Civil Rule 16 authorizes the Court to require counsel to exchange the reports of medical and expert witnesses expected to be called by each party, each counsel shall exchange with all other counsel written reports of medical and non-party expert witnesses expected to testify in advance of the trial. The parties shall submit expert reports in accordance with the time schedule established by the Court. The party with the burden of proof as to a particular issue shall be required to first submit expert reports as to that issue. Thereafter, the responding party shall submit opposing expert reports within the schedule established by the Court. Upon good cause shown, the Court may grant the parties additional time within which to submit expert reports.
- B. A party may not call a non-party expert witness to testify unless a written report has been procured from the witness and provided to opposing counsel. It is counsel's responsibility to take reasonable measures, including the procurement of supplemental reports, to ensure that each report adequately sets forth the non-party expert's opinion. However, unless good cause is shown, all supplemental reports must be supplied no later than thirty (30) days prior to trial. The report of a non-party expert must reflect his opinion as to each issue on which the expert will testify. A non-party expert will not be permitted to testify or provide opinions on issues not raised in his report.
- C. All non-party experts must submit reports. If a party is unable to obtain a written report from a non-party expert, counsel for the party must demonstrate that a good faith effort was made to obtain the report and must advise the Court and opposing counsel of the name and address of the expert, the subject of the expert's expertise together with his qualifications and a detailed summary of his testimony. In the event the non-party expert witness is a treating physician, the Court shall have the discretion to determine whether the hospital and or office records of that physician's treatment which have been produced satisfy the requirements of a written report. The Court shall have the power to exclude testimony of the expert if good cause is not demonstrated.
- D. If the Court finds that good cause exists for the non-production of a non-party expert's report, the Court shall assess costs of the discovery deposition of the non-complying expert against the party offering the testimony of the expert unless, by motion, the Court determines such payment would result in manifest injustice. These costs may include the expert's fee, the Court reporter's charges and travel costs.

- E. If the Court finds that good cause exists for the non-production of a report from a non-party treating physician, the Court shall assess costs of the discovery deposition of the physician equally between the Plaintiff and the party or parties seeking discovery of the expert. These costs may include the physician's fee, the Court reporter's charges and travel costs.
- F. A party may take a discovery deposition of their opponent's nonparty medical or expert witness only after the mutual exchange of reports has occurred. Upon good cause shown, additional time after submission of both sides' expert reports will be provided for these discovery depositions if requested by a party. If a party chooses not to hire an expert in opposition to an issue, that party will be permitted to take the discovery deposition of the proponent's expert. Except upon good cause shown, the taking of a discovery deposition of the proponent's non-party expert prior to the opponent's submission of an expert report constitutes a waiver of the right on the part of the opponent to call an expert at trial on the issues raised in the proponent's expert's report.

RULE 27. REPRODUCTION OF HOSPITAL RECORDS.

Upon motion of any party showing good cause and upon notice to all other parties and the individuals who is the subject of the reports, the Judge may order any hospital by any agent competent to act in its behalf, to reproduce all or any portion of designated hospital records, not privileged, which constitute or contain evidence pertinent to an action pending in this Court. The order shall designate the person or persons to whom such reproductions shall be delivered or made available.

Reproductions made pursuant to 'this procedure may be admitted in evidence without further identification or authentication but subject to rulings or objections impliedly or specifically reserved unless the order expressly provides otherwise.
- C. Charges for reproduction of its records shall be paid directly to the hospital by the movant or movants, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Upon completion and prior to delivery of the transcript the remaining balance of the cost for the preparation of the transcript must be paid to the court reporter or such other person as designated by the Court. - 1. General. All mediation communications related to or made during the mediation process are subject to and governed by the Ohio Uniform Mediation Act, codified in R.C. Chapter 2710. Mediation communications are confidential, and no one may disclose any of these communications unless all parties and the mediator consent to disclosure. The court may impose penalties for any improper disclosures made in violation of this rule. Disputes regarding confidentiality should first be addressed with the mediator where possible.

By participating in mediation, a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. § 2710.01(D), submits to the court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for the enforcement of this rule. Any nonparty participant will have the same rights and duties under this rule as are attributed to parties, except that no evidence privilege will be expanded.

All mediation communications are confidential with the following exceptions:

- a. Parties may share all mediation communications with their attorneys;
- b. Certain threats of abuse or neglect of a child;
- c. Statements made during the mediation process to plan or hide an ongoing crime; and

A mediator must meet the qualifications of and comply with all training requirements of Sup.R. 16.22, 16.23 and the within Local Rule. A mediator shall promptly advise the court of any grounds for disqualification or any issue affecting the ability to serve. The following methods may be used to select the mediator for the case:

1. The court may assign a court-employed mediator to mediate;
2. The court may randomly assign a mediator to the case from the court's roster of approved mediators;
3. Specific appointments may be made by the court, taking into consideration the qualifications, skills, expertise and caseload of the mediator in addition to the type, complexity and requirements of the case;
4. Parties may select a mediator from the court roster, if any; and
5. Parties may request leave to select a mediator without guidance from the court. The court is not responsible for the quality of the mediator selected by the parties in absence of the court's guidance including, but not limited to, confirmation of responsibilities, qualifications, education and training requirements set forth in Sup.R. 16.22 and 16.23. The parties must agree as to the payment of fees.

G. Procedures.

A party opposed to a court-appointed mediator must file a written objection with the court within seven (7) days of receiving notice of referral to the mediator, with reasons for the opposition. Mediation shall be held in Geauga County at a place convenient to the mediator, unless all parties and the mediator otherwise agree. The mediator shall fix a time for mediation to occur, not more than sixty (60) days after submission to mediation and shall notify the parties or their counsel in writing, at least ten (10) days before the mediation of the time and place of the mediation. The sixty (60) day deadline may be extended once by the mediator for up to fifteen (15) days. Notwithstanding any continuance, the mediation shall be held and concluded within ninety (90) days from the date of submission, unless the court permits a further extension. The initial mediation session shall be scheduled for a minimum of two (2) hours.

J. Conclusion of Mediation.

Immediately on concluding mediation, the mediator shall report to the court: whether a settlement was reached, either all or in part and whether all necessary parties attended.

The mediator shall notify the court and the parties if the mediator determines that further mediation efforts would not be beneficial. If the mediation was successful, the mediator, parties or counsel, as agreed by the parties, may immediately prepare a written memorandum memorializing any agreement reached by the parties. The “Mediation Memorandum” may be signed by the parties and counsel but the signed Memorandum will not be privileged pursuant to R.C. § 2710.05(A)(1). The “Mediation Memorandum” may become a court order after review and approval by the parties and their attorneys. No oral agreement by counsel, the parties, or an officer of the court, is binding unless made in open Court. No agreement developed in mediation is legally binding until reviewed and approved by the parties and their attorneys. If an agreement is reached, the parties or their attorneys shall submit a joint final judgment entry to the court within fourteen (14) days of the conclusion of the mediation, or at such other time as ordered by the court. If an agreement is not reached, the case will return to the assigned Judge. Failure to submit an appropriate judgment entry in a timely fashion may result in dismissal of the case or imposition of appropriate sanctions. Upon dismissal, court costs and mediator fees shall be paid as ordered by the court.

K. No Stay of Proceedings.

With the exception of foreclosure cases, all remaining court orders will continue in effect during any mediation. No order is stayed or suspended during the mediation process except by written court order. Mediation will not stay discovery, which may continue through the mediation process in accordance with applicable rules, unless agreed upon by the parties and approved by the judge or magistrate assigned to the case. The court shall continue to manage the case by establishing deadlines and placing the matter on the trial docket.

L. Continuances.

It is the court’s policy to determine matters in a timely manner. Cases shall be scheduled for mediation by the mediator. Continuances of a scheduled mediation will be granted only by the mediator.

M. Compensation of Mediator and Costs.

With the exception of foreclosure cases, the court will order a mediation fee of Seven Hundred Dollars ($700.00) payable to the Clerk of Courts for deposit in the Mediation Fund. The mediator shall be compensated for his/her services at the rate of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) per case. In special and meritorious cases, the Judge may approve fees in excess of $600.00. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the mediation fee will be shared equally between the parties. At any time after a case is filed, the Administrative Judge may order any party to deposit up to One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), in addition to the usual filing fees, for any case which may require extraordinary expenditures to implement mediation. The additional fee shall be paid to, and collected by, the Clerk of Courts. The court may waive costs and fees for an indigent party. A court-employed mediator shall be compensated as determined by the court. The mediator will not receive a fee if the case is settled or dismissed at least two days prior to the first mediation hearing date and mediation fees will be returned to the parties. If the case is settled or dismissed within two days of the first mediation hearing date, the mediator will receive a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) and the remainder will be returned to the parties.

N. Attendance; Sanctions.

Parties shall attend all mediation sessions in person unless their attendance has been excused in advance by the mediator. All persons necessary for authority to settle the case must attend. The attorney who is primarily responsible for handling the trial of the case shall also attend the mediation unless excused by the mediator. Failure to attend mediation without good cause may result in sanctions which may include, but are not limited to, the award of attorney's fees and other costs, contempt, or other appropriate sanctions at the direction of the assigned judge or magistrate.

O. Evaluations, Comments and Complaints.

The court's policy is to use mediation to benefit the parties, to assist in reaching a resolution and to provide a process that is timely and flexible and maintains the trust and confidence of the public. Any mediation participant may submit written comments, complaints, or feedback regarding the performance of mediators receiving referrals from the court.

P. Public Access.

The mediator's files, which are neither filed with the Clerk of Courts nor submitted to the court, shall not be available for public access pursuant to Sup.R. 16.25.

Q. Foreclosure Mediation.

A foreclosure case other than a tax foreclosure may be referred to mediation either: (a) by the court on its own motion; or (b) the mortgagor may file with the Clerk of Courts a Request for Mediation on the form prescribed by the court and provide the financial information as requested within the time frame provided in this rule.

The mortgagor will be provided with a Request for Mediation, Debtor's Questionnaire for Foreclosure Mediation and Estimated Monthly Income/Expense Worksheet with the service of summons. The mortgagor shall file these documents with the court within 21 days after service of summons. Failure to do so may result in the case being denied for mediation.

Upon the court's receipt of the mortgagor's Request for Mediation and other required documentation, the mediator will review same to determine if the case is appropriate for mediation. If the court orders mediation, the case proceedings will be stayed until the conclusion of the mediation process. If the case is not referred to mediation, then the case will remain on the regular docket.

Foreclosure mediations shall be held and concluded within 180 days from the date of referral unless extended by the court. The mediator shall immediately advise the court of scheduled and rescheduled mediation dates. The case will remain in mediation and stayed until it is dismissed or the mediator has determined that mediation has been unsuccessful. The mediator shall communicate to the assigned Judge if the mediation has been unsuccessful. Unsuccessfully mediated cases shall be ordered back on the court's regular docket.

The foreclosure mediator shall be compensated for mediation services at the rate of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per case.

1. If the opposing parties are:
 - a. Related by blood, adoption, or marriage, or have resided at a common residence; and
 - b. Have known or alleged domestic violence at any time prior to or during the mediation,

Then, the parties and their counsel have a duty to disclose such information to the mediator.

2. The parties in such a case have a duty to participate in any screening process and the court may order mediation only if it determines that it is in the best interest of the parties to proceed to mediation. The court will support such determination with specific findings of fact.

S. Dispute Resolution Fees.

Pursuant to R.C. § 2303.201(E)(1), the court has ordered a mediation fee payable into the Mediation Fund, as follows (a) on the filing of each foreclosure action or proceeding, a fee of Ninety Dollars ($90.00); (b) on the filing of every other civil (including domestic and domestic post-decree) action or proceeding, a fee of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00). Such additional fees shall be used to implement the procedures set forth in this rule.

All fees collected shall be paid by the Clerk of Courts for deposit with the County Treasurer who will place the funds from these fees in the court's Mediation Fund.

If the court determines that the amount of money in the Mediation Fund is more than the amount sufficient to satisfy the purpose for which the fee was imposed, the court may declare a surplus in the fund and expend the surplus money for other appropriate court expenses.
